

Campbell Highland Games General Scholarship Application

In keeping with its mission statement and 501 (c) 3 status, The Campbell Highland Games Association offers scholarships and awards to individuals wishing to advance their expertise in areas of Celtic culture. Included in these areas are academic, arts and crafts, athletics, dancing and music. Scholarships and awards, as well as activity categories, are recommended by a CHGA scholarship committee appointed by the board president. All committee recommendations must be approved by vote of the CHGA Board of Directors.

How To Apply

Interested individuals must complete and return a general application form, a specific category form, and all required supportive information such as essays, references, portfolios and official transcripts.
